

In this site we provide some of the panels and some of the used photos of the exhibition for media coverage. These pictures are free to use as far as they are used in the context of media coverage on the projekt "The Third World in World War II".

To get the high resolution pictures please right click at a picture and chose "save target as..." (or similar)

Panel with title of the exhibition
(Source: recherche international e.V.)

African soldiers of the British colonial Army
(Source: Imperial War Museum, London)

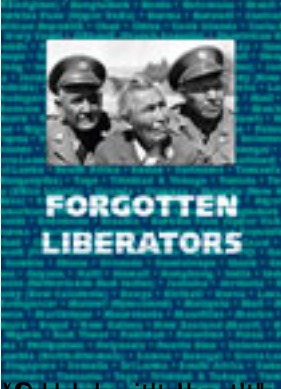

1939: Colonial soldiers from Africa in French trenches
(Source: S.I.R.P.A., France)

August 1944: Local porters for the Allies at the front-line in the mountains of New Guinea
(Source: National Archives, U.S. Army Signal Corps)

Resident of the President Islands, Kennedy, lives of John F. Kennedy.

Goldsmith has written 'Forgotten Liberators' in 2009. It tells of men and women from third world countries who fought in the second world war.
Photos from South Africa: □

May 1940: Recruiting of Cape Corps volunteers
(Source: Department of Defence Documentation Centre, Pretoria)

Reinforcement of the Cape Documentation Centre, Pretoria)

South Africa for a (South Africa) by Italian troops in Ethiopia

South Africa for a (South Africa) by Italian troops in Ethiopia

South Africa for a (South Africa) by Italian troops in Ethiopia

South Africa for a (South Africa) by Italian troops in Ethiopia

South Africa for a (South Africa) by Italian troops in Ethiopia

Disarmed soldiers from the Afrikaans (German) North African desert

South African contingent of the 1st South African Infantry Brigade (Madagascar Centre, Pretoria)

The Guardian, 10.11.1941 - Soldiers demand post-war security

South African Field Marshal Sir Jan Smuts (left) with soldiers in North Africa

Walter de la Rivecourt, President of the Ex-Servicemen's Club in Cape Town

...ational e.V.)

...Tobruk, North Africa), Dennis Norman Marthinus (trompet

...participated as driver in the battle of Sidi Rezegh in North Africa)