

The Exhibition Tour of South Africa 2017 – 2019 Report of the Denis Goldberg Legacy Foundation (here)

Speech of Karl Rössel for the opening of the exhibition on 28 February 2017 at the Castle of Good Hope in Cape Town. (here)

Cape Town TV – Between the Lines, March 16, 2017: South African journalist John Matisonn talks with Karl Rössel about the content and the background of the exhibition „The Third World in World War II“. (Youtube-link)

Report on the exhibition in Cape Town at CGTN (Chinese Global Television Network)(You tube-link)

<https://youtu.be/rsQAxOtTDzo>

Symposium:□

“Forgotten Liberators – A Decolonised History of the Third World in World War II”: accompanying the opening of the exhibition at the Steve Biko Centre, one Zotshie Street, Ginsberg, King William’s Town (eQonce), Eastern Cape, South Africa

Info: here

The exhibition at the Desmond & Leah Tutu Foundation

Invitation by the Desmond & Leah Tutu Legacy Foundation and the Denis Goldberg Legacy Foundation to schools to use the exhibition as part as their history lessons: (here)

Three assignments to stimulate learners interest based on the exhibition: (here)